

Milngavie in Bloom Privacy Policy

Milngavie in Bloom (MiB) is committed to ensure that your privacy is protected, including taking the necessary security precautions when MiB are holding your personal information.

Our Application Form

When you submit the application form from the website to become a volunteer or a friend we, the committee, collect the following information with your consent:

- Name
- Address
- E-mail
- Telephone Number

What we do with the information we gather?

MiB gather this information to allow us to contact you with necessary email updates and to send you our regular newsletter, and to inform you of any upcoming events that we have organised. Our membership secretary holds your telephone number if you are willing to share it as we sometimes may have to contact you. MiB do not share this with other volunteers without your permission. MiB will not share, distribute or sell your personal information to third parties unless we have obtained your prior consent to do so, or we are required by law to do so.

Our Website and Facebook pages and photographs

We use these to inform our volunteers, potential volunteers and funders about our organisation. If you do not want your photograph to appear please let us know by emailing us at the address below.

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, we cannot guarantee the protection or privacy of any information you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should review their Privacy Policy and exercise caution in providing any of your personal information.

Rights of individuals

You have the right to request that your information be removed from our database by sending an e-mail request to MiB. You also have a right to view what data we hold about you, by sending an e-mail request to MiB. We must respond to this request within one month of the date of receipt of the request, and provide you with either an electronic or hard copy of the personal data requested.

If there are any questions that you have about this policy, or no longer wish to receive our mailings please contact us at our email address milngavie-in-bloom@hotmail.com or by writing to our Membership Secretary.

Milngavie in Bloom (MiB) recognises your right to privacy. We use security precautions to make sure any information we collect about you remains private and is in accordance with the Data Protection Act.
